

Local News

: Personals :

Miss Bertha Armstrong was in the city this morning from Honea Path.

Miss Bessie Lee Cheatham returned this afternoon after spending fair week in Columbia with Mrs. Motte Cheatham.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons have returned from a visit to Mrs. Gibbons mother, Mrs. R. G. Cheatham, of Greenwood.

Mrs. Fred Cason returned Friday from Columbia where she attended the State Fair and visited with her sister.

Mrs. M. T. Coleman spent from Thursday until Monday in Abbeville with home folks. She reports a serious form of the dengue fever at present in Florida.

Misses Rosabelle Brown and Rachel McMaster were the guests of Mrs. J. D. Harrison in Greenwood over Sunday. They were honored by Mrs. Harrison with a charming party during their stay with her.

James Coleman spent Sunday at home Sunday with his parents. He is manager of the Clemson football team, and is recovering from the excitement of the Carolina game.

Mrs. T. G. White, and Miss Jesse White accompanied Misses Mary White and Emmie Lou Washington as far as Greenwood on their way back to Converse College after the week-end in Abbeville.

Capt. and Mrs. O. K. Mauldin, of Greenville, have been spending several days with Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Milford. Mrs. Mauldin will be remembered in Abbeville as Miss Grace Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Brown and Marion Brown motored to Spartanburg Sunday for a visit to Mrs. C. G. Evans. Mr. Brown found the roads between here and Spartanburg dusty and full of bumps from the dry weather and the heavy travel over them.

MARY ANNA ARNOLD.

Dr. and Mrs. L. T. Hill went to Elberton Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Carter Arnold and see the new granddaughter who will be graced with the name Mary Anna Arnold.

BIRTH NOTICE

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Newell, Oct. 30, 1922 a son, Adolphus Eugene.

TONSIL OPERATIONS

Dr. T. L. Davis came over from Augusta Sunday and took out the tonsils of Mrs. C. E. Williamson, Mrs. J. L. McMillan and Miss Virginia Bosler.

SUNDAY VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Madden had as their guests Sunday: Mrs. J. W. Madden and Mr. and Mrs. Milleged Madden of Belton, and Miss Elsie Culbreth and Roy Dellinger of Greenwood.

Mrs. Gibbons Out Again.

Mrs. Alma C. Gibbons, County Home Demonstration agent, is out again and at her post of duty after a vere case of dengue fever.

Mrs. Carmichael Ill.

News was received in Abbeville last week of the serious illness of Mrs. Nelle Wilson Carmichael at her home in Bennettsville. She was taken to a hospital in Florence and friends in Abbeville will hear with pleasure that she is making a satisfactory recovery.

Mrs. Seawright Has Operation.

Mrs. J. M. Seawright, of Antreville, was operated on at the Abbeville Memorial Hospital this morning and is doing nicely. Dr. J. R. Bell came Down from Due West to be with her during the operation.

Celebrate Grandmother's Birthday.

Mrs. J. W. Hafner and little Ellen and Mrs. Hafner mother of Mr. Hafner spent Sunday in Greenwood with Mrs. J. W. Spearman where they attended the celebration of the birthday of Mrs. Hafner's grandmother Mrs. Fuller.

SOCIETY

CHARMING PARTY.

Mrs. Otto Bristow gave a charming party Saturday afternoon to her two visitors, Mrs. B. O. Bristow and Mrs. D. T. McKeithan, Jr., of Darlington, and Mrs. T. W. Bouchier of Atlanta and Mrs. A. S. Townsend of Bennettsville, who stood in the receiving line with Mrs. Bristow and met the Abbeville people as they arrived.

The Bristow home was most attractive Saturday. The card rooms are finished in blue, and the effect of the decorations of pink and yellow chrysanthemums and pink and yellow roses against the blue background was very taking. Bridge and rook were played, there being twelve tables arranged for the guests. From out of town Mrs. Bristow had Mrs. Hanford Henderson, of London; Mrs. Frank Poole of New Brunswick, N. J., and Mrs. Boren and Mrs. Lindley of Greensboro, N. C. To these out of town visitors Mrs. Bristow presented dainty drawn-work handkerchiefs as souvenirs of the occasion; and to Mrs. B. O. Bristow she presented a cut glass basket and to Mrs. McKeithan a string of jade beads. The lowest cut prize was won by Miss Nettie Russell and was a drawn-work handkerchief, while Mrs. A. S. Townsend won the highest cut prize which was a deck of playing cards.

This was one of the most delightful entertainments of the season and Mrs. Bristow was an ideal hostess. Refreshments of chicken salad and coffee were served.

PAUL, JR. AND SAMUEL LINK'S BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Paul, Jr., and Samuel Link, young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Link, celebrated their birthdays Saturday by giving a Hallowe'en party. Paul, Jr. is four years old and Samuel is two. Twelve of their little friends were invited and were delighted with the decorations of witches and goblins, black cats and pumpkins lighted with grinning faces. The fishing pond was another source of pleasure, and was arranged so the youngsters drew their prizes out with a fishhook and line. The prizes were horns to make merry with.

Refreshments of ice cream, popcorn, ginger cakes with icing faces, and individual bags of apples were served.

As the guests departed Paul, Jr. and Samuel presented them with grips in Hallowe'en design packed full of candy.

PARTY FOR HALLOWE'EN BRIDE

The Ace of Clubs entertained in honor of the bride elect. Miss Lillian Richey at the home of Mrs. J. O. Crowley on Greenville street Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Hallowe'en spirit prevailed and the season's decorations were carried out in every detail. There were three tables of cards and after hour of bridge Miss Josephine Barnwell, dressed in a witer's costume entered and approached a large witch's cauldron in the corner of room which was filled with all sorts of kitchen utensils. To each package was attached an appropriate verse. These she handed to the bride-to-be one by one.

There was much merriment and laughter during the reading of these verses, after which cocoa and sandwiches were served by Mrs. Crowley assisted by Miss Josephine Barnwell.

THOSE HISTORIC HILLS.

Betty and Margaret DuPre gave a double birthday party Friday afternoon. Betty was three and Margaret eight years old and they invited their friends in for the party. There were 65 present, and a great time was had playing "drop the handkerchief" and "London Bridge", but the game that could not be resisted was "snake in the gully" which consisted of sitting down at the top of the DuPre's newly made and sodded embankment and sliding down to the bottom and running around and up the concrete entrance steps to be ready to slide down again. This was also an interesting game to the mother of the hostesses who was anxious for the embankment to keep its shape. And no doubt was the subject of some comment when the invited guests reached home in the late evening with unmistakable signs of the wonderful slides they had down the red hills of old Abbeville on their fine party clothes.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake and candy were served.

HALLOWE'EN BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Benie Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Evans of North Main street, had a Hallowe'en birthday party Saturday afternoon in celebration of her tenth birthday. The house was decorated in pumpkins black cats, and all of the things that go to make up an event of this kind. Twenty-five of Benie's little friends were invited and games of the Hallowe'en season were played, after which refreshments of ice cream cake and candy were served.

I N HONOR OF VISITORS

Among the largest and most delightful social events of the fall season was the Bridge party of seven tables given by Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Harrison last evening in honor of their house guests. Misses Rachel McMaster and Miss Rosalee Brown, of the faculty of the Abbeville school.

The attractiveness of the Elm Court residence was accentuated by decorations befitting the Hallowe'en season. Witches, black cats, autumn leaves, fruits and pumpkins were effectively used in adorning the reception rooms and a soft glow was cast over the scene by yellow shaded lights. The places were marked with unique Hallowe'en tally cards and individual Hallowe'en bonbon boxes filled with mints were placed on the tables.

In concluding the evening a tempting salad course was served by Mrs. Harrison assisted by Mrs. R. B. Curry, Mrs. J. Rosenberg and Miss Sue Perry.—Index Journal.

Entertaining Visitors.

Mrs. John A. Harris, Jr. is entertaining the out of town visitors at a table or two of bridge this afternoon.

D. A. R. MEETING.

The Abbeville chapter D. A. R. will meet Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. Richard Hill's.

FAIR VISITORS

Mrs. W. A. Harris, "Micky" Harris and Miss Comer Phillips have returned from Columbia where they spent last week attending the State Fair.

MR. CASON INJURED

Dr. and Mrs. George Penny and Mr. J. M. Gambrell went to Anderson Sunday to see Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cason. Mr. Cason had the misfortune to have his foot injured two weeks ago from which injury he is still suffering.

L. W. Keller visited Newell's camp today to look after the work on Buckett's bridge.

Watch the label on your paper.

THE IDEAL GIFT

FOR THE

CHILD'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

Is A Package Of

WHITMAN'S WONDERBOX.

Just the Nicest Package of the Cleanest Candies for Children you ever saw.

25 CENTS.

THE

McMurray Drug Co

MIRACLE DAYS.

Miracle days are not passed. Five months and a half ago Mrs. C. B. Wosmansky suddenly lost her voice and medical advice was sought from local doctors and then specialists from a distance were consulted; but nothing seemed to do any good and for five months communication with a pencil and pad was the best that could be done.

Arrangements were being made for Mrs. Wosmansky to leave Saturday for Spartanburg to be under the extended care of a specialist in the treatment of what seemed to be the matter. But Friday morning a daughter, Miss Pauline, awoke having dreamed in the night that her mother's voice had returned to her. She told this dream at the breakfast table and kept commenting on how real it all seemed, and how she had cautioned her younger sister in the dream to be careful and do nothing to cause the loss of voice again.

After the family left for their various duties Mrs. Wosmansky was crossing her room when she felt a sensation as if something was passing through her throat, and she realized even before trial that she could speak again. She went to the telephone and communicated with her family. There is great rejoicing in that home today.

Mrs. Wosmansky is the wife of B. Wosmansky of the Southern Cotton Oil Company and the mother of two daughters, Misses Pauline and Frances. Mr. Wosmansky's father came to this country from Poland in 1871 and was a gifted man. He could transcribe the Lord's prayer on the face of a dime, so expert was he with his pen. He was born in Moravia, in Poland, and was educated at Neuschedern, in Austria, for the priesthood, his family being devoted Catholics. He was a first lieutenant in the Austrian Army in the war between Austria and Persia, and his father was a major in the same army.

After coming to America he secured a position in the office of the Judge of Probate for Abbeville County.

Watch the label on your paper.

Your Last Chance

This is Your Last Chance to Take Stock in this Series of Standard Building and Loan Stock.

Come in and let us talk to you. There is no better or easier way to save than through the Building and Loan.

STANDARD BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION

OTTO BRISTOW, Secretary
Office at PLANTERS BANK.

Don't Fail To See Our Clothing For Boys

You'll find us better equipped than ever, this season to serve you with

CLOTHING FOR BOYS.

Our Special Suits with two pairs of trousers are almost equal to two Suits, and they cost only a little bit more than the Suits with one pair of trousers. We have them in Serge, Tweeds and Cassimeres, in new and attractive styles and patterns.

Boys Suits $7.50, $8.50, $10, $12.50 & $15
Boys Odd Trousers 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 and up to $3.50
Boys Union Suits 75c, $1, $1.25, and $1.50
Boys Caps 50c, 75c and $1.00
Boys Hats $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50

Parker & Reese